Lancaster Girl Loser.

Miss Cordelia Hamilton, daughter of Mrs. Isaac Hamilton of this place, and who conducts a millinery establishment in Middlesboro, was loser to the amount of about $200, because of high water in Middlesboro last week.

Art Exhibit.

The Womans Club exhibit of Ky Art will be held May 12 and 13. In addition to these attractive pictures, many articles of fancy work will be displayed.
Beautiful music and nice refreshment will make the occasion a very interesting one.

Now Use Them.

The womans Club has purchased large, strong garbage cans, and they will be put in convenient place around the square and at the post office. The Mayor sanction this effort of the Club to make the street cleaner. The official board commends the act, and it is hoped that all paper and such refuse will be put in these cans and not thrown upon the the street.

Boyle Court.

Judge Walker began a four weeks term of Circuit Court in Danville on Monday. The appearance docket is not heavy but there are a great number of old cases on the docket, both equity and common law, which the judge proposes to get rid of, either by trying them or having them dismissed. In short, he proposes to have a genuine "Spring cleaning" in Boyle, as he has had in other counties.

Tankersley Goes To Pen.

On last Friday deputy sheriff C. A.
Robinson took Quincy Tankersley to the penitentiary. Tankersley was convicted at the last term of Circuit Court of the killing of his cousin James Ross near Flatwood in July 1910, and was given an indeterminate sentence of from two to twenty one years.

While in Frankfort Mr. Robinson collected the amount due by the state to the various Garrard county officers.

fering was relieving destitution in China; the U. S. Government making cable transmission of funds direct to Bank at PeKing the capital of China, and where the food depots for famine relief are centered. The Chinese famine of today is described as one of the most appalling in human history.

New Ice Delivery Compnry for Lancaster.

Within the next two or three weeks
there will be established in this city a new ice delivery company to be known as the Lancaster Ice Delivery Co., W.
H. Campbell Manager. Mr. Campbell comes from Richmond and has the reputation of being a young man of sterling qualities, strictly honest, accommodating and deserving. This new firm will open an office here with telephone accommodations, and will establish an up-to-date delivery service, making delivery of ice to any part of the city, in any quantity desired, any hour in the day, and every day in the week, during the season. This firm will have on hand at all times a large supply of ice, and will be glad to furnish, residences, business offices, stores, meat shops, soda fountains and any other concern in town using ice, and also invite out of town residents to stop at office and get a big piece of ice to take home. The location of office etc. will be announced in a later issue. Give these people a trial and see if the ice furnished, weight given, low price charged, and service rendered does not warrant your patronage.

Drop in Saturday and let us dress you

Mr. Rhea In Town.

Mr. Thomas S. Rhea of Logan county, candidate for the democratic nomination for state Treasurer was in town Tuesday and paid the Record office a pleasant visit.

Mr. Rhea is a brother of the noted
John S. Rhea, one of the most celebrated attorneys in western Kentucky, and once a power in democratic politics
in Kentucky.

Mr. Rhea is an affable gentleman and has his brother's knacks of making friends of all with whom he comes in contact, and if he is not closely watched he is going to win the nomination for the office he seeks.

Fair Officers Elected.

The officers of the Fair company held a meeting on Tuesday and decided to incorporate under the name of "The Lancaster Fair", articles of incorporation will be filed at once.

The following gentlemen were elected officers for the ensuing year: W.
B. Burton, president; J. L. Gill, Secretary; F. B. Marksberry, treasurer and J. B. Bourne, G. C. Walker and R.
L. Arnold, vice presidents.

The boys are already at work and active preparations are being made to make this the greatest fair ever held in Garrard county.

New School Building At Manse.

The county board of education on last Saturday purchased of Mr. E. C. Mc-Whorter for $350.00 a lot near Old Paint Lick church upon which will soon be erected a handsome new school building for the Manse district. This improvement is not done before it is needed for, the old school house is wholly unfit for school work. Some of our most progressive citizens live in this district and they have been working years, and knowing their interest in education we look for a modern model school in operation in the district in a few mnths.

This is a move in the right direction and we congratulate the people of the Paint Lick district in their enterprising spirit to promote the welfare of their public school.

There are other districts in the county that could and should follow their example.

Advertising Pays.

The secret of the success of the Mail order houses, and the reason they are enabled to pay an annual dividend of 33 1/3 per cent is the liberal use of printers ink. Their goods are no better, and after counting the delivery charges, are no cheaper than the articles you will find at the counters of the home merchant, but they advertise their wares, not only with large catalogues, but through the columns of the magazines and newspapers.

Perhaps if the merchants who do the most complaining against these houses would devote a little less of their time to grumbling and a little more of their capital to advertising, they would be able to in a measure check this growing evil.

Set forth the virtues and prices of your wares through the medium of your home paper, let the people know that you have the same goods for the same money, and perhaps less than these people, and you will surely find in the long run that every dollar invested in advertising is a dollar well spent.

J. B. Walker Shocked By Lightning.

Mr. J. B. Walker had a very unique as well as dangerous experience this week. Few men there are who can boast of being struck by lightning, and live to tell the tale. Mr. Walker has gone through this illuminating experience, and is none the worse for it.
Early Monday morning in the midst of the severe thunder and lightning storm
he went to the barn with a colored boy to do the morning milking. A bolt from the blue, though it was black at the time, struck a tree in the yard of Mr. Neal Bennett's place adjoining, and ricocheted to Mr. Walker's barn.
He was instantly stunned, and was carried into his house unconscious. Prompt medical aid averted any serious effects, and after a short space he fully recovered his strength and faculties. He fully agrees, however, with Prometheus of the ancient fable, that it is best to let the fire from heaven alone. His friends are delighted with his miraculous escape from death.—Richmond Register.

The above refers to Mr. James B.
Walker, a brother of T. B. Walker of this place. Mr. Walker was more seriously injured than the above article would indicate, and while no serious results are apprehended, yet reports from his bedside are that he will be confined to his home for a couple of weeks.

munity as any other person in our midst the clergy not excepted.

Big Meeting.

The evangelistic services at the Methodist church every morning at 10 o'clock and every evening at 7:30 o'- clock are being enjoyed immensely by the many people who attend. Evangelist, Patrick H. Davis is conducting the meeting and is a fine preacher. The singing is beautiful. Every one is invited to these meetings and much good will be done.

Fiscal Court.

At the meeting of the Fiscal Court
last Saturday, the live stock inspector's salary was fixed at $125. annum. The county treasurer's salary was fixed at $300. per annum. Dr. Wm. Burnett was re-elected county physician and his salary fixed at $200. per annum.
The County treasurer's settlement and the sheriff's settlement was filed and approved by the court.

Amen Brother.

The Middlesboro News-Record roundly berates the newspaper correspondents of that city because of what it terms "the grossly exaggerated account in the daily newspapers of the recent cloud burst in that vicinity."

The Record has been importuned by a number of people who have friends in Middlesboro, for a copy of the Middlesboro papers that they might read an account of the great calamity which had befallen that city as chronicled by the daily press. One message to the daily press read as follows: "Middlesboro April 5 Damage estimated at over $1,000,000 was caused here last night by a cloud burst. Half of Middlesboro was under water. Coal mines were flooded."

This is but a sample of the alarming messages sent out. The facts as given by Middlesboro papers show the loss to have been but trifling as compared with what these reports would indicate, a few houses in the low lying district were a few inches under water, and there was some damage to wares from the rising waters, and a few families did have to remain up all night through fear, and the railroads and mines sustained some damage from the cloud burst, but nothing like what the reports would indicate. There is a tendency upon the part of "space writing" correspondents to distort every item they send to their papers, to build mountains out of mole hills. Middlesboro is not the only locality which has suffered from this evil. Down here in the blue grass every happening in some localities is grossly exaggerated before it reaches the daily press, every street brawl becomes an alarming occurrence, one or two citizens discussing some infraction of the law are distorted into a mob, and the least little occurrence, which ordinarily would never reach the daily press, is distorted and exaggerated in order that it may become an attractive news item, else they well know it would not be published.

This kind of newspaper notriety is detrimental to the community from which it is sent and is discouraged by all correspondents who place the proper value upon news items, who as the News-Record puts it "know a news item when they meet it in the big road". Neither is it encouraged by the daily press.

The daily papers instruct their correspondents to confine themselves strictly to the truth, but they of course have no means of knowing that some of their stuff is a fake when it is sent them. The correspondents themselves are solely to blame in the matter, many of them care little for the welfare of the community in general, or at least it would so appear from the character of stuff they send in. They lose sight of everything except how many inches it is going to make and how many dollars they are going to get out of their inventions.

A newspaper correspondent, one of the proper kind, sends to his papers only genuine news, and in as few words as possible, they are paid to send in the news, not to write editorials, if there is editorial comment to be made, their papers have a man who will attend to that. The correspondent should make sure of the authenticity of every article before sending it, be sure it is a news item, and above all things do not unnecessarily injure the character of any community or individual, rather than do this sacrifice an occasional article of minor importance, something that would be as well unsent, and in whose happening the world at large is but slightly interested, and whose sending would work an unnecessary hardship upon some unfortunate person. Better news items than you ever found are suppressed every day by great newspapers, for humanity's sake, and to save some one from useless notoriety.

Secretary of the Treasury, Franklin McVeagh, in an address before the Academy of Social and Political Science in Philadelphia bitterly censured the Civil war pension list. He said that while it was given rise to by a worthy motive, yet it had drifted into a political list, and had lost all vestige of patriotism.

Secretary McVeagh warmly advocates a system of pensioning old civil service employees of the government. He believes that the old men and women who have given the best part of their lives to the government, even if the service was of a peaceful rather than a military character should be cared for in their old days, as well as the old soldiers who were more strenuous in their efforts.

Secretary McVeagh very wisely advocates the contributing system for their pensioning, which if he could only get the employees themselves to agree to it, would prove a solution of the problem.

H. H. Kohlsatt, a Chicago editor, when summoned before an investigating committee of the Illinois legislature revealed the fact that a "slush fund" of $100,000 was raised to elect William E. Lorimer to the U. S. Senate from Illinois. His assertion seems to be incontrovertible, as he is supported by such men as Cyrus W. McCormick, president of the Harvester Trust and others.

In view of the recent facts brought to light in the matter, senator LaFollette has introduced a resolution in the U. S. Senate to have that body reopen the case, and in the event he is successful and Lorimer is again tried by that body, he will doubtless be ousted as the complexion of the senate has changed considerably since he was allowed to hold his seat by the 61st Congress.

General Stanley Williams, a Kentuckian whose home is thought to be in Louisville, was killed in a battle with Mexican Federal soldiers last Saturday. Williams led a forlorn hope, seventy men, most of them Americans, against the entire Mexican eighth brigade seven hundred men. The battle lasted seven hours, Williams little body of Insurrectos coming out with only twenty of their members, while the Mexican forces lost one hundred men. "Bunny" Durning, formerly a reporter on the Louisville Herald, was with Williams in his wild charge and was uninjured, and with the true instinct of a newspaper man wired the news of the battle to the Herald.

After Judge Sanford had decided several points in favor of the Coca Cola people in Nashville last week, the Government attorneys moved that the case be dismissed, which was done. The move for dismissal was made in order that the Government might take an appeal to the higher courts, and the matter will in all probability be now taken to the Federal Court of Appeals in Cincinnati. Upward of $200,000 has already been spent in the hearing of the case. The main contention of the Government is that the preparation contains caffeine.

Hon. Tom L. Johnson died at his home in Cleveland O., Tuesday night. Mr. Johnson has made a noble fight for life, sick over two years, the last few months of his life has been a hard battle for existence, his physicians giving him on several occasions only a few hours to live, but his indomitable courage and will power outwitted them. Mr. Johnson was a spectacular figure in democratic politics, a single taxer and advocate of three cent street car fare in his native city of Cleveland, of which he was four times Mayor, he was also twice a Congressman from the 21st Ohio district.

In the mines of the Banner Colliery at Littleton near Birmingham Ala. 121 convicts were killed by black damp following a supposed powder explosion, there were about thirty of the number white, the remainder of them negroes. The accident was supposed to have been caused by a slight powder explosion setting fire to coal dust and producing the awful "black damp". At Throop Pa. three miles from Scranton, 76 men were killed by fire in a coal mine, the origin of the fire is unknown.

Six hundred delegates attended a meeting at Elizabethtown Saturday held by the good roads advocates from the counties along the old Louisville and Nashville turnpike. Committees were appointed and plans set on foot to put the old road on the basis of a modern highway. The one day plan seemed to prevail in sentiment, and it is probable that August 15th will be the day.

Hon. Ollie James will formerly open his campaign for the Democratic endorsement for the United States Senate at Nicholasville on April 17th. His opponent Senator Paynter, will be invited by Mr. James to be present on the occasion, and in the event of his attendance he will be accorded a division of time.

Carter H. Harrison Jr. was elected Mayor of Chicago last week for the fifth time, this time by a plurality of over seventeen thousand votes. Harrison's father, Carter H. Harrison Sr. was a Kentuckian and was himself several times mayor of Chicago. He was assassinated by a crank named Prendergrast.

Wanted.

A salesman and collector for Garrard Co. who can furnish horse and buggy on salary. Singer Sewing Machine Co. Incorporated Danville Ky. 4-18-2t

Editor W. L. Moore of the Whitley Republican of Williamsburg with his wife and son are registered at the Kennel. Mr. Moore has made an offer on one of the best two hundred acre farms in Garrard county, which will probably be accepted.

There is evidently more money in journalism in Whitley than in this county.

Pull For It.

In another column of this issue will be found an article from the Lexington Herald which would indicate that the Lancaster Development Association, or at least its president is not letting any good thing, or even the possibility of a good thing escape them.

In the event the capitalists interested in the traction line now running in to Nicholasville can be interested in the extension of the line to this place, it behooves the people of Lancaster and Garrard county to lend every assistance in their power toward securing it, and leave nothing undone that will aid the Development Association or its officers in their very laudable undertaking.

Suits Dismissed.

In the Franklin Circuit Court last week, Judge Walker presiding as special judge, the cases of J. C. Cantrill against John C. Noel and J. C. Cantrill against the Kentucky Journal were dismissed, a demurrer having been sustained in the Noel case because the defendant in his answer said the alleged false and malicious statements about Cantrill were made in a judicial proceeding, and therefore he was not liable for the $50,000 damages claimed by Cantrill. In the case against the Kentucky Journal in its answer stated that it was simply publishing judicial proceedings, and therefore was not liable in damages, and its contention was upheld by the court.

Electric Line.

Mr. John M. Farra, of Lancaster who has done a great deal to bring his town and section into the prominence they deserve, was here yesterday to meet some of the officials of the new Kentucky Securities Company which is to take over all the street car and interurban lines in this section, in order to lay before them the advantage that would accrue both to the company and to the section which would be served by extending the interurban line from Nicholasville to Lancaster, and ultimately to Stanford and Danville.

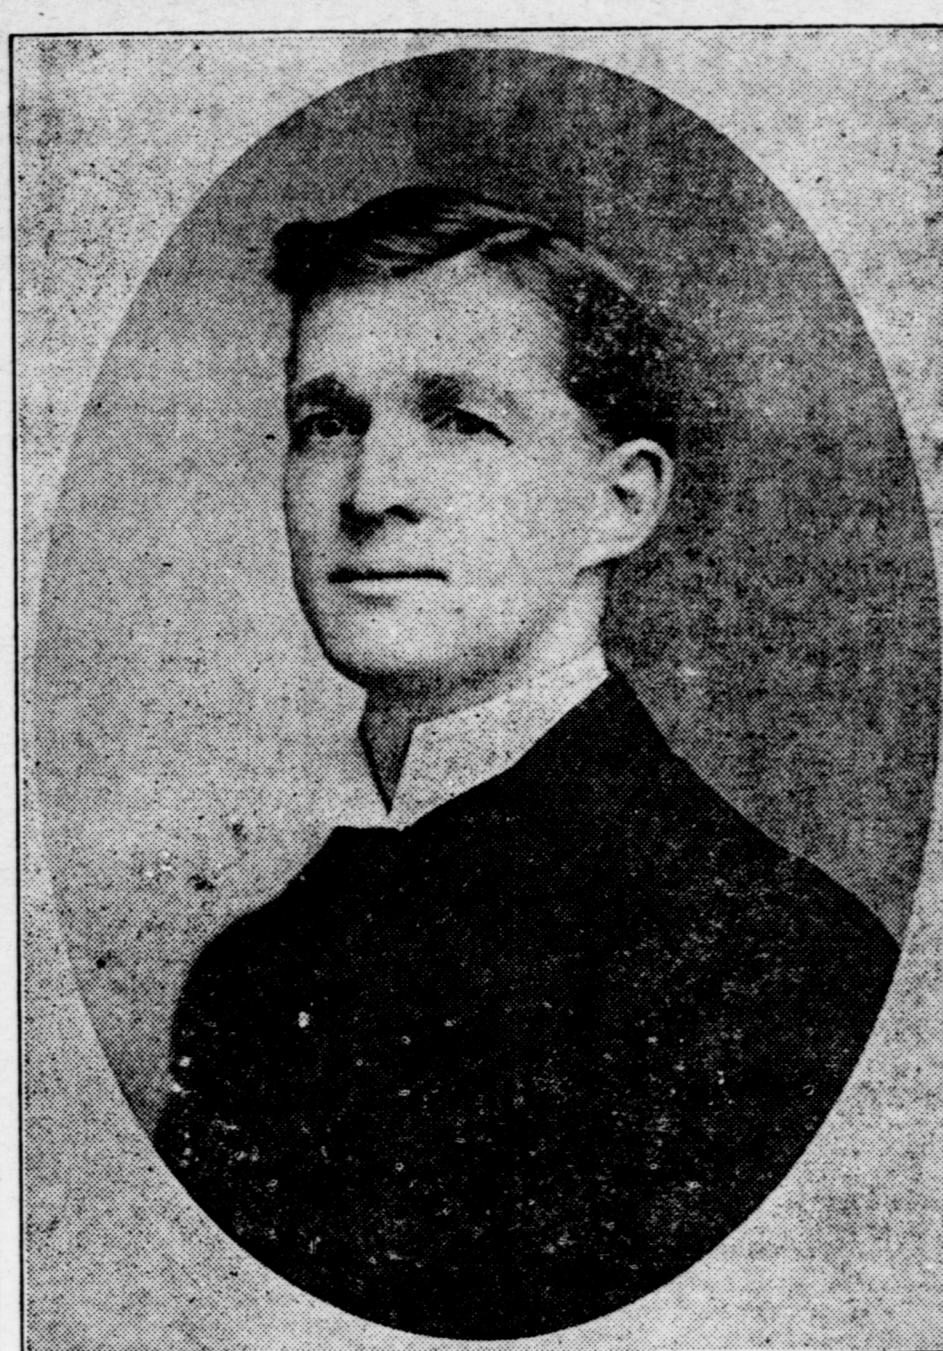

The road is already completed to Nicholasville, and the distance from there to Lancaster is some twenty-two miles through a country as rich as any in the State. True the Kentucky river would have to be crossed, but those who have traveled the pike down the gentle incline to the river on this side will recall how easy other vehicles pass over it, while on the other side is a valley with moderate grade to Bryansville, thence along a comparatively level plateau to Lancaster.

The road will open up practically new territory filled up with thrifty people who are anxious for an outlet. En route from Nicholasville to Lancaster are a number of small towns. At Camp Nelson there is a large federal cemetery near which a town has sprung up, while at Camp Nelson on the river is one of the largest distilleries in the country. The latter has to rely entirely on the river for transportation of its output and immense amount of supplies necessary to run the establishment. Then there are Bryansville, Camp Dick Robinson and other smaller towns and villages.

At present, although Lancaster is but thirty-four miles from Lexington, it requires a railroad ride of ninety miles and many changes of trains to reach here, besides consuming more than three hours of time. It is really easier for the people of that thriving and progressive little city to go to Cincinnati to do their shopping which they would be glad to do here if they could.

In order to obtain the road Mr. Farra tells us that the people of Lancaster and Garrard county would contribute liberally to its construction. From what we know of the route and the people it would serve, we are sure that the Securities Company would find it profitable to investigate. It could be built cheaper than the line from Versailles to Frankfort and would open up just as desirable a section. It would undoubtedly be a great thing for Lexington, while proving of inestimable value to Lancaster as well as Stanford, which so far as reaching this part of the State, is in the same condition as Lancaster, besides proving a paying investment both in passenger and freight traffic.—W. P. Walton in Lexington Herald.

Lost on Friday, April 7th, between T. S. Elkin's store and the rock quarry on Danville street, a round gold handle parasol with the name, Miss Erma Cleveland, Charleville, Pa., engraved on handle. Return to S. B. Elkin, 4-14-2t Lancaster, Ky.

DR. C. F. CRECELIUS, CANDIDATE FOR THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION FOR SECRETARY OF STATE.

Dr. C. F. Crecelius of Pendleton county, candidate for the democratic nomination for Secretary of State was here Wednesday getting acquainted with our people and urging his claims to the office to which he aspires. Dr. Crecelius is running the kind of race we would like to run were we in politics, he as yet has no opposition.

Lancaster Masons Honored.

At the annual election of Ryan Commandery K. T. in Danville on Tuesday night J. W. Sweezy was elected Generalissimo and J. S. Haselden Warden for the ensuing year.

Residence Changes.

Rev. F. M. Tindler will move to his recently purchased property, the Higginbotham home on Stanford Avenue, this week. Mr. John F. Holtzclaw will occupy the place made vacant by Mr. Tindler's change, having rented it for the remainder of the year.

Tobacco Season Closes.

Telegrams to the daily papers announce that the tobacco warehouse will close in Danville on April 20th. for the present season.

The Danville warehouses have done a splendid business this season and Garrard county is in a measure responsible for it, having practically no market of their own and Danville being the nearest point, the business naturally went there. We hope that by the coming of another season we will be prepared to take care of all the tobacco raised in Garrard county on the home market.

Dr. Minor Missing.

The wife of Dr. O. Raymond Minor, of Louisville has asked the police of that city to endeavor to locate her husband, who she alleges has been missing for nearly two weeks. Mrs. Minor is seriously ill at her home on west Broadway, the result of a recent operation.

Mr. J. S. Minor, father of the missing man, refuses to discuss the matter further than to state that his son is away on business. Dr. Minor, is a brother of E. T. Minor, who formerly lived here, and the son of J. S. Minor who erected and formerly owned the Garrard Milling plant.

A Good Show.

Lancaster was treated to something this week which is a rarity with them, a real good circus. The "Mighty Haag Show" is the best attraction that has visited this place in a long time, and very justly attracted a large crowd.

A good crowd was out to see the show unloaded, which showed their keen anxiety to see a good show.

The street parade was exceptionally good and drew an immense crowd. Many comments were heard on their stock, it being above the average of even much larger aggregations. There has been added recently to the list of animals with this show a baby camel of the silver haired variety, the little fellow was born in Elizabethtown Ky. April 6th 1911, and is only a week old now. This is the only animal of this particular species ever born in captivity, and it naturally will attract a great deal of attention, not alone because of its rarity, but because of the fact that it is a native of Hindostan, one of the most superstitious countries in the world, whose people are reluctant to allow this species of camel to pass to the hands of strangers, they believing the animal to be an omen of good luck.

Vindicated.

Barnum's intimate friends were chiding him for having incautiously given utterance to the opinion that the people like to be humbugged.
"Shucks!" he exclaimed. "It won't make any difference in the success of my show."

Idle Curiosity.

"There is a man at one of the local hotels from Cuckoo."
"I'll go down and take a look at him."
"What for?"
"I merely want to see if he looks anything like his prototype in musical comedy."

Feared a Real Calamity.

"Why did you abandon your motor car trip so abruptly?"
"Oh, my wife is so superstitious! After we had run over the thirteen man she said we ought to turn back otherwise she felt sure we should meet with some accident!"—Pearson's.

Between Friends.

Miss A.—Dolly seems to have a lot of ideas at all about how to dress herself. What I wear—she wears.
Miss B. (sweetly)—Oh, yes; she's always making herself ridiculous one way or another.—London Opinion.

Pre-Suffragette Times.

"According to old-fashioned notions, it was impolite to mention trousers in the presence of women."
"Yes. That was in the days before women were so darned eager to wear them."

EVIDENTLY GOT IT CHARGED.

Maud—I took the ring Charley gave me for Christmas to the jeweler's to price it.
Mamie—What did the jeweler say?
Maud—He asked me if I wanted to know the cash price.

A Resemblance.

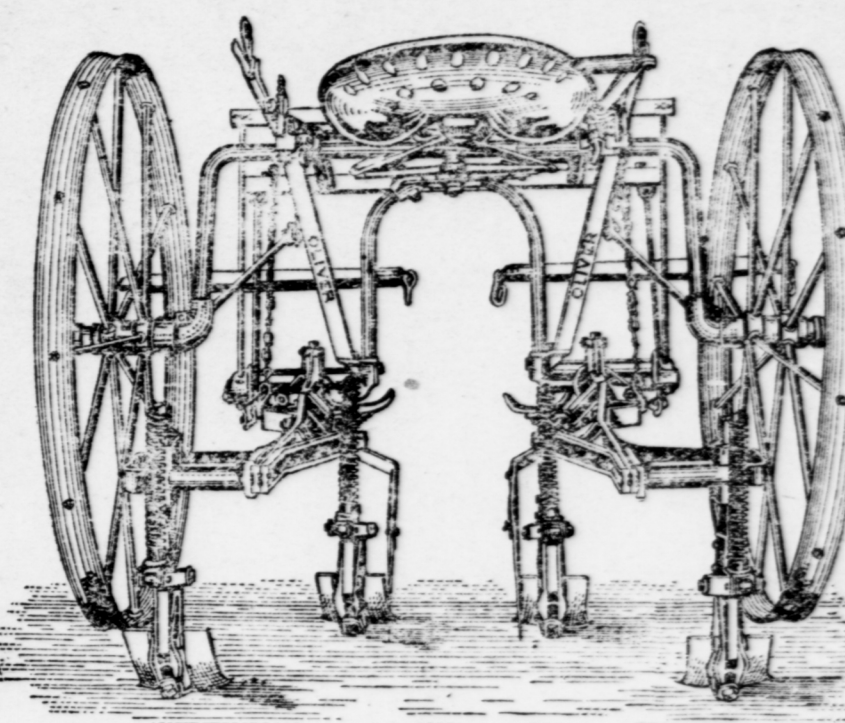

The new hats for the women are shown in every store; We've seen them, and they look like helmet knights of old once wore.

The Way of it.

"I see where a Chicago preacher says that modern woman's clothes are an invitation to sin?"
"The bill for his wife's new dress probably made him want to swear."

CONFESSED HER IGNORANCE.

Willie Radcliffe of Eighteenth street, near Oxford, went to school for the first time this week and his first impressions were not at all favorable to educational methods and the teachers. When he came home at noon his mother was full of questions and Willie was full of disgust.

"Well, boy, how did you like school?"

"Aw I didn't like it."

"Why, Willie, you must not say that. You have to learn if you ever wish to be a successful man."

"Well, that's just it. I can't learn anything in that school. The teacher don't know anything."

"What makes you say that. How do you know she doesn't?"

"Well, I know, all right, she gave herself away. She can't even spell little words. Why she had to ask me how to spell c-a-t, when she wrote a sentence on the blackboard."—Philadelphia Times.

His Afterthought.

In an idle moment Edwin Markham, the poet, was amusing himself by trying to do a bit of verse in the Martin Dooley dialect:

"Bowed be th' weight iv cinch'ries he leans Upon 'is hoe an' gazes on the ground—"

Then he stopped.

"By jove!" he exclaimed, his eye flashing with a sudden inspiration; "I'll turn that into a serious poem!"

"It'll make a hit!"

It did.

His Tender Heart.

Lomster (looking over Culmire's lawn)—What has become of your big sweet apple tree?

Culmire—I had it cut down.

Lomster—Why in the world did you do that?

Culmire—To save myself from having any more heartaches. You have no idea how dreadful it used to make me feel when little boys whom I had arrested for stealing apples, were sent to the reform school.

PLEASANTLY SURPRISED.

"Well, Harry, did Santa Claus bring you everything you expected for Christmas?"

"No."

"Well, you seem to be bearing up cheerfully. You look as happy as possible."

"I am happy. I expected he'd bring me a little brother or sister, or something like that, and what do you s'pose? I got a pup."

A Little Lesson. The golden harbor of content By him is soonest won, Who feels for every day that's spent A sense of duty done.

Notice To Bond-holders Of Lancaster Graded Common School.

The following BONDS will be redeemed on May 1, 1911: Nos. 1, 4, 9, 11, 14, 17, 20, 22, 23, 25, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 35, 37, 41, 44, 45, 50, 52, 60, 62, 64, 67, 72, 73, 76, 80.

Persons having above bonds will please present same to E. W. Harris, Treasurer, for payment on May 1, 1911, at which time they will cease to bear interest. By order of the Board of Trustees of the Lancaster Graded Common School. 4-14-2t J. B. Kinnaird, Secretary.

A Club Scandal.

"Hear about the row at our club?"

"No."

"Ferdie struck Cholly with a table-spoon."

"Scandalous!"

"Isn't it, though. Both were under the influence of ginger pop."

No Chance There.

Kind-Hearted Woman (in country village)—A man as strong as you are ought to be able to find work. Haven't you any regular occupation?

Wayfarer (with his mouth full)—Yes'm; I wash th' winders o' sky-scrappers.

Glasses All Right.

Near-Sighted Old Lady—Tommy, these new glasses of mine magnify strangely. That dog of yours looks to me more than a yard long.

Tommy—There's nothing the matter with your glasses, grandma. This is a dachshund.

After the Holiday.

"I reckon you didn't think of your poor old dad all the while you were away."

"Yes, we did, dad. When ma heard a man grumbling about his meals at the hotel she said, 'That's just like papa!'"—Comic Cuts.

Easy Lifting.

Patience—This novel says his eyes were riveted to the floor for an instant, but he quickly raised them.

Patience—Must have been weak sort of rivets.—Yonkers Statesman.

INDIGESTION GOES
R. E. McRoberts & Son Sells Best Stomach
Prescription On Money Back Plan.

Almost everybody knows that sick headache, nervousness and dizziness,
are caused by a disordered stomach.
Upset stomach and indigestion happen just because the food you eat does not digest—but lies in the stomach and ferments or turns sour.

You can stop fermentation and stomach distress in five minutes by using MI-O-NA stomach tablets, a prescription that has done more to cure indigestion and put the stomach in fine condition than all stomach specialists on earth.

A large 50 cent box of MI-O-NA stomach tablets is all you need to get quick and lasting relief R. E. Mc-Roberts & Son guarantees them.

Mrs. Altie Eison, of 93 Dun Road, Battle Creek, Mich., used MI-O-NA and within two months was in as good health
as ever, and has a good strong stomach

WHEN HER BACK ACHES.
A Woman Finds All Her Energy And Ambition Slipping Away.

Lancaster women know how the aches and pains that come when the kidney's fail make life a burden.
Backache hip pains, headache, dizzy spells, distressing urinary troubles, all tell of sick kidneys and warn you of the stealthy approach of diabetes, dropsy and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills permanently cure all these disorders. Here's proof of it in a Lancaster woman's word.

Mrs. J. W. Pumphrey, Danville St., Lancaster, Ky., says: "My experience with Doan's Kidney Pills leads me to say that they live up to the claims made for them. I suffered a great deal from backache and at night could not sleep well. On several occasions my back became so painful and weak that I was unable to attend to my housework. Being advised to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial, I did so, procuring a supply at Frisbie's Drug Store. They helped me from the first and I am grateful to think."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents.

"$2,000.00"

Mr. Luther Guthrie, of Beaufort, N. C. spent money freely in employing doctors to cure his wife from continual headache. He writes:

"One bottle of Cardui did my wife more good than anything she has taken for ten years past. She had suffered with headache for ten years and I had spent $300.00 for doctors' bills for her, but nothing did her any good."

Take CARDUI

She has taken two bottles of Cardui and it has done her two thousand dollars ($2,000) worth of good. Just as long as it is made, I shall have Cardui in my home."
For all forms of female pain, like headache, side ache,
pain in limbs, dizzy feelings,
dragging down-sensations, etc
—Cardui has been found to be an effectual remedy. Don't

EDUCATING THE WORMS.

"Don't you know that fishing is for-bidden in this pond?"
"I'm not fishing; I'm just teaching my worms to swim."

Revised.
The early bird, we've often heard
Is the one of which we boast;
Sometimes he gets the worm and then—
Sometimes he gets on toast.

Indifferent.

"What was Constable Miggs doin' up on th' stage durin' the entertainment?"
"Th' dum'd ol' idiot was insistin' thet Jim Peters should have his Santa Claus whiskers fireproofed."
"What did Jim say?"
"He said he'd worn 'em thirty year without fireproofin', an' he didn't care a dern whether they burned or not!"

The News.

"What is the news?" the condemned
cried:
When told the judge denied his plea
He shook his head and sadly sighed:
"That's noose to me."

The Vernacular.

"You seldom hear a young man these days say that he is paying his addresses to a young woman."

"No. He usually announces that he is 'going after a skirt.'"

If You Could Watch Ten Years

If you could watch a prepared roof for ten years—see the effect of snow and hail and ice and frost and wind and fire, you'd certainly know whether that was the roof you wanted or not.

You can do it. In ten minutes time you can determine the effect of ten years of severe wear on any prepared roofing. We've embodied six tests—tests which correspond to ten years of the hardest kind of wear—in a book. It is yours for the asking at our dealer's. The information it contains will enable you to absolutely settle the question of which prepared roofing will last longest and require least repairs.

When you make the tests, include a sample of

Vulcanite Roofing

We know that Vulcanite will carry off the honors. That is why we furnish the tests. We are content to let Vulcanite Roofing sell itself. It is good enough and worthy enough and reasonably enough priced to be its own best salesman.

Sixty years ago, the first Vulcanite Roof was marketed. Every succeeding year has seen the Vulcanite label covering a better piece of goods.
Today it stands alone as the best prepared roofing obtainable at any price.

George Wilkes 519, 2:22. Sire of 83; dams of 204. Lady Frank 181; dams of 79. Mambrino Star 588. Great brood mare. Mambrino Boy 844. Sire of 15; dams of 43. Nora Wilkes. By George Wilkes 519. Major Edsall 219. Sire of 1; dams of 1. Nancy Whitman untraced. Seneca Chief 878. Sire of 4; dams of 15. By Champion Grinnell. Dam of Jericho 290. Grandam of 4.

ALLEY GREGOR is one of the best trotting Stallions in Kentucky. He has a lot of style and finish and is a great acting horse. Don't wear any boots, just 9 oz shoes. He ought to make a great sire. His oldest colts are coming two's and show great speed and action. Any one wishing to see one of them can do so on the Lexington track where they are now in training.

This is a good chance for the people of Garrard County to breed into the best families of the trotting blood.

Look this horse's breeding over and see how many they have in the list both sire and dam.

This great trotting Stallion will make the season of 1911 at my stable in Lancaster, Kentucky, at $15. To Insure a living Colt Sound and All Right.

I am prepared to take care of mares on grass at 10cts per day. Lien retained on colts for service fee. Money due when mare is traded or parted with. Care taken to prevent accidents but not responsible should any occur.

Farm and Stock.

Squire J. P. Bourne sold to Banks Hudson a fine mare for $300.00.

Robert E. Tipton of Montgomery county sold a fine pair of mare mules to southern parties for $600.

E. B. Myers, or Shawcan has sold his five-year old jack, Midnight to J. M. Rice of New Mexico, for $1,000.

Herbert Brooks recently purchased the fine horse "Dignity Dare Jr.," of his brother L. W. Brooks price paid $451.00

The first sale of wool of the season is reported from Paris, John T. Hedges sold his 1911 crop for 20 cents per pound.

W. Irvine Arnold, of Woodford county, Ky., bought from E. A. Farra, of Jessamine county, Ky., 30 thoroughbred Southdown ewes with lambs for $375.

The Old Mason's Home have discontinued their dairy business at Shelbyville. At their dispersal sale last week their cows brought on an average $50. per head.

At the sale of T. B. Rippey, of Lawrenceburg, Ky., which was held recently, mules sold from $150 to $200 each. Mule teams brought from $312 to $450 per pair.

The Department of Agriculture is authority for the statement that Kentucky raised in the year 1910 381,024,000 pounds of tobacco, which was 38.7 per cent of the weed raised in the United States. This was the banner crop for Kentucky in so far as quantity but the quality was way below the average.

H. F. Hillenmeyer, the nurseryman, says the fruit crop in Central Kentucky was not hurt by the recent freeze and that the fruit prospects are thus far excellent. The fruit, however, Mr. Hillenmeyer says, is by no means safe yet, it being killed last year by a freeze on April 24. Mr. Hillenmeyer believes that the only fruit thus far injured are perhaps Jayanes plums.

Butter is a good price. Feed is comparatively cheap, especially so if you have saved all of your roughage, such as cornstalks, the best of your straw, and things of that sort which frequently go to waste. This being true, dairymen should bring good returns this winter provided the cows are fed liberally enough to produce large quantities of milk.

Disorder of the digestive functions afflicts lambs most severely. White scour affects the unweaned lamb. This appears to be the passing of undigested milk. Change the ewe's feed, providing poorer hay with ground oats and corn with a sprinkling of linseed-meal.

If a cow has an apple or similar obstruction lodged in her throat, it can be removed by pouring a pint of melted lard down her throat. This will make the animal strangle and cough, and in the struggle the obstruction will be dislodged.

The common opinion that sheep should be kept as scavengers and that they will thrive best on the farm that is too poor for other kinds of live stock is twin brother to the opinion that white beans thrive best on a poor, thin soil.

It is scarcely necessary to suggest that it is good policy to make a close examination of any newly purchased hogs and be assured that they are absolutely free from lice before they are turned with the other hogs.

It is much better practice to raise heifer calves from the best cows in the herd to keep up the number of profitable milkers than to depend upon buying the mature animals as needed.

Start the trap nests so it can be known which are the best winter layers. Almost any old hen will lay in spring and summer; it takes a good hen to lay in late fall and winter.

The use of the separator is no longer an experiment with the farmers and dairymen, as most every farmer keeping two or more cows is using one at the present time.

Plowing not only loosens up the soil but more of it is thus exposed to the action of the sun, air and frost. Stubble, weeds, etc., are buried and so changed into humus.

Milking must be done quickly. Quickly and thoroughly. Anything that irritates the cows such as roughness, or slow milking will shorten the milk flow.

An acre of land which produces a ton of dry hay must contain moisture enough so that the growing crop can pump up approximately 500 tons of water.

Cold-frames, hot-beds, green-houses and mushroom caves are all used for forcing rhubarb, but lacking these, one may utilize an ordinary root cellar.

Some folks are still housing their hens under the barn, where the wind sweeps through, fearfully cold. These are the folks who are sure hens don't pay.

Use a low, wide-tired wagon in the orchard, and thus avoid cutting up the sod and dragging the lower limbs over the bed, peeling and breaking them.

A properly-conditioned draft horse, with its necessary education largely completed, is one of the most perfectly-finished products of the farm.

There is solid satisfaction and encouragement for a man to do his best in driving a well-mated team that responds to good horsemanship.

NOTES FROM MEADOWBROOK FARM

Look out for the weak colonies of bees and give them honey from those that have more than they need. Thousands of colonies starve to death every winter. If you feed the bees sirup be sure it is not too thin or trouble will result. Three parts water and four of sugar will be about the right mixture.

In order to maintain the fertility of our soil we must farm scientifically in the future, and it will be necessary for us to adopt the practical methods of live stock farming which have been in vogue in Great Britain for many years.

A team with one horse fretting and fuming to go faster and rushing ahead at every opportunity, and with the other horse willing to take life easy, is anything but conducive to a pleasant frame of mind.

As the nation has raised the largest corn crop in its history farmers should be in a little better condition than ever before to hold back enough corn to tide them over until the 1911 crop is in the crib.

Don't put off breaking and turning your land till spring, and then jump in and try to do in a week work which, if properly done, would require several months' steady grind.

Anyone can easily see that bone is one of the best feeds for producing eggs, as the fat assists in forming the yolk of the eggs and also in sustaining the fowl in winter.

Simply laying the grape vines on the ground will often save them from winter injury. Throw a little earth or evergreen branches on them to make sure.

Calves will begin to nibble at bright hay or grass by the end of the first two or three weeks, and some of it should be kept where they can reach it.

Cull out the worthless members of the flock and save your profits. Then be kind to the biddies and they will be kind to you in filling your egg basket.

One of the best preventives of scratches in horses is to keep the feet clean. If mud is permitted to dry on the fetlocks irritation is likely to ensue.

Oyster-shells ground fine are excellent for supplying lime. A pound of shells contains enough lime to thoroughly coat seven dozen eggs.

The pig, like every other young animal, loves to be alert and to be moving about with all the freedom which belongs to such a nature.

Sheep and lambs should not be allowed to run in the same pasture or the lambs will be in great danger of becoming infected with disease.

The water-holding capacity of the soil is enormously increased by the presence of large quantities of decaying organic matter or humus.

Ducks prefer ground grain to whole grain except in cold weather, when a ration of whole grain soaked in warm water is desirable for them.

A nervous cow is preferable to a stolid one. The chances are that she will give more and better milk than her dull, mopeish sister.

It is a well-known fact that disease is more prevalent among hogs just after they are started on new corn than at any other time.

A moist soil then kept in an unfrozen condition as long as possible is the surest means to prevent winter killing of trees.

A sheep that has once been chased by dogs becomes suspicious at the sight of a dog or any noise that may suggest one.

Nowadays farmers are alive to the fact that it requires strong horses to perform efficient work on the farm.

A stumbling horse is dangerous, and is usually made so by bad shoeing. Go to an intelligent, expert shoer.

Any good cellar in which an even temperature of 40 degrees can be maintained will do for bees.

An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure in the treatment of your flock of laying hens.

As foaling time approaches, the mare needs the best of care and the most careful feeding.

Kicked By A Mad Horse.

Samuel Birch, of Beetown Wis., had a most narrow escape from losing his leg, as no doctor could heal the frightful sore that developed, but at last Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured it completely. Its greatest healer of ulcers, burns, boils, eczema, scalds, cuts, corns, cold-sores, bruises and piles on earth. Try it 25c, at R. E. McRoberts & Son.
